

Alexandria Gazette

MONDAY EVENING, SEPTEMBER 18

MR. ROBINSON'S SPEECH.—Mr. Lucius Robinson, the democratic candidate for Governor of New York, in acknowledging the compliment of a serenade in Albany, a night or two ago, said:

Fellow Citizens of Albany—I thank you most heartily for this courtesies and your kind, friendly greeting. My official duties have required me to reside many years among the people of this old historic city. I have received at their hands innumerable favors, personal and social, as well as political, and I am grateful for this additional expression of their regard. I am aware that the occasion of this is the nomination made by the democratic State convention on Wednesday last. All who know me know that I neither sought, desired, nor expected that nomination. But I hold that in this republic government it is the duty of every citizen when called to the public service by the people, without any agency of his own, to obey that summons, and to serve without prevention by insurmountable obstacles. If the people shall ratify the nomination it will be my earnest effort to discharge the duties of the office in accordance with the cardinal principles of the democratic party of equal and exact justice to all men; economy in the public service; to the end that labor may be lightly burdened and the correction of the abuses which so naturally creep into the administration of the government by political parties long enjoying unlimited power.

That great abuses now exist and have long existed in the administration of the general government is admitted by all men; but our opponents claim that they may be corrected by their own party. Can they be? Is it probable or possible? Is it anywhere recorded in the political history of this country that any party corrupted by the long possession of power ever reformed itself and corrected its own abuses? It has never been done and will not be without a change shall be made is the question at issue in this campaign. But I do not appear before you to discuss these issues. I appear simply to express my gratitude for your kind greeting. [Applause.]

ENCOURAGE HOME MANUFACTURE

I am now manufacturing a good and cheap PAINT, of several colors, the body of which is equal to Lead and Oil, which for tin roofs, barns, stables, fences, &c., will be found very suitable as well as economical, and an improvement over other cheap mixed Paints now in the market. For brick walls with a northern exposure it will act as a preventive to dampness. For iron it makes a solid and lasting coating. Impervious to moisture and a preventive of rust. Being of various shades of color, the cornice and trimmings can be painted to suit. This Paint has been used by one railroad company and by many of the farmers in this vicinity, and is highly recommended by all who have tried it. Price, single gallon, 75¢. 10 gallons 50¢ per gal. 1 bbl, or 40 gallons, 60¢ per gal. Call and examine samples at 85 King st., under Carriage Hall.
